

Age: 16

After a short stay in the juvenile justice system he realized what he did at 14 was wrong and he changed his ways. He's working really hard to make friends and working hard to keep up with school work.

2

Age 18:

He realizes that he wants to make something of himself, applies for a scholarship and is so excited when he gets the award!!

4

Age 18:

Surviving the juvenile system, he gets a job and decides to get out on his own! Finally, 18 he is free to do what he wants!

6

Age 20:

Sometimes it is a good thing to wait until later in life to meet the love of your life! She's a wonderful girl and makes college life awesome!

8

Age 20:

Finding a decent job without a high school degree has been difficult. Finally, he's found a job as a laborer that will allow him to support himself. The job is very physically hard, but the work is good and he's finally got his own place.

10

Age 16:

After a short stay in the Juvenile detention center he keeps up with his bad behavior and then into more trouble. It seems as if he just learned more bad behaviors by being around other troubled kids.

3

Age 18:

He has no idea what to do with his life so he's dropped out of high school just to get away from pressure. It's just too hard and so he just wants to run away from the decisions!

5

Age 18:

Big surprise about hanging with his new friends! The drugs and alcohol is everywhere, every day!

7

Age 20:

College life is a blast! Parties any time, day or night! Unfortunately, it doesn't always work out for the school work. And being popular for the first time in his life, it is impossible to pass on fun to study!

9

Age 20:

Still living with YOU, he's seeing a girl who is the last person you would want coming into your home. She's nasty looking and is so rude when you try to have a conversation. Her friends are even worse! What does your son see in her!

11

Age 20:

Actually very good at saving money, he's able to get an apartment and furnish it without any help!

12

Age 20:

Rehab turns out to be a good thing! He's committed to changing his life for the positive. First step: Admitting he has a problem!

14

Age 22:

Graduates college with a degree in Anthropology! Now married to his college girlfriend, they are talking about starting a family!

16

Age 22:

A new friend has brought some inspiration. He's getting some positive influence to get back into school. Graduation is just around the corner!

18

Age 22:

Realizing his job is not getting him anywhere, he starts attending a community/technical college to get a real career.

20

Age 20:

Work is terrible! The boss is so demanding! He was pushed too far and his temper got in the way. Next thing he knew, he was walking out of his job in a huff. Now he's back living at home.

13

Age 20:

Continuing to do stronger and more drugs, he has now been confronted by a random woman who is accusing him of impregnating her!

15

Age 22:

Unfortunately, his girlfriend left him when she discovered the fact he is a registered sex offender! However, he knows he is a changed person and is not letting this ruin his life. He is continuing with his studies – more committed than ever!

17

Age 22:

Dropping out of college, looking rough from constant partying, all he can find is dead end jobs and loser friends. When is he going to grow up?

19

Age 22:

He gets fired for being late multiple times and missing work. Now he's forced to find a new job to support himself. You're not going to let him free load on you!!

21

Age 22:

The break up with the girl is the best thing that could have happened! Without her negative influence, he is finally on the right path!

22

Age 22:

After being good at saving money, you are not surprised to find your son is also good at planning! He is busy clearly mapping out what he wants out of life and is steadily working toward those goals!

24

Age 22:

Thankfully, YOU were able to help your son find a job with a family friend. In a few months he should have the money to move back out of your house.

26

Age 22:

After rehab he finds a nice girl who accepts his past and they map out their future together.

28

Age 22:

After the realization he is now going to be a parent he finally gets his life together. He and the woman have a healthy baby together.

30

Age 22:

Decides he wants to spend the rest of his life with this girl! They are very much into drugs and alcohol. This is a disaster!

23

Age 22:

Rent was due and not paid. Now he is forced with the decision to try find a new place without any money or move back home!

25

Age 22:

Couch potato, no social life and forever alone, only left with the company of a fat gray cat!

27

Age 22:

Rehab did not work – this time! Living on the streets, family and friends avoid him and he depends on the City Mission for most of his meals.

29

Age 22:

Your son is the homeless person on the street you've looked at and judged in the past. You saw him on the corner begging and asked him to go get something to eat. It was a difficult day, for sure. He looks very sick. You've done all you can.

31